

CALL FOR ARTISTS

Deadline for Submissions: April 28, 2010

Framing the Phoenix
A Mental Health Art Exhibition

6th Anniversary

May 4-15, 2010

the ARTS PROJECT

203 Dundas Street,
London. ON

Eligibility/Who Can Enter

- This exhibition is open to artists whose lives have been touched by mental illness
- The entrants may be professional or non-professional artists
- Only original, two or three dimensional work will be considered. There is no registration fee

Specifications

- All accepted work must be presented in a professional manner, ready to be hung
- Organizers have the right to refuse any work that does not meet the admission criteria, exhibits signs of poor quality or due to physical limitations
- Artwork displayed may be offered for sale – please include your full asking price on your registration form
- Only one piece per artist

Insurance

Artwork remains the property of the artist. The Mental Health Promotions Committee, St. Joseph's Regional Mental Health Care London, and The Arts Project are not responsible for work that is damaged, lost or stolen before, during or after the exhibition. Every effort will be made to provide a reasonable level of care and security.

"Framing the Phoenix" is an art exhibition brought to you by the Mental Health Promotions Committee. It is our hope that through art we will reduce the stigma of mental illness. Art is a wonderful venue to explore the recovery process of mental illness. We encourage you to submit your artwork and support this exciting endeavour.

REGISTRATION FORM

Name: _____

Address: _____

Tel: (H) _____ (W) _____

E-mail: _____

Submission:

Title: _____

Medium: _____ Price: _____

Registration Checklist:

- Completed Registration Form
- Submission
- Artist statement and artist biography (one page typed if possible) to be displayed in binder at show
- Art is hangable

WAIVER

I, _____, have submitted one piece of art to the Mental Health Promotions Committee (MHPC). I understand that the artwork remains the property of the artist. The MHPC, St. Joseph's Regional Mental Health Care – London, and The ARTS Project are not responsible for work that is damaged, lost or stolen before, during or after the exhibition. The MHPC will make every effort to provide a reasonable level of care and security for your work.

(signature)

(date)

Registration Process

Option A: Drop off – Wednesday, April 28, 2010, 2 – 5 pm

Please bring artwork, a completed registration form (or fill one in at the time of drop-off), a brief artist statement, and an artist biography (1 page).

Submission to be dropped off at:

The Board Room, Regional Mental Health Care
850 Highbury Ave. North London, ON

Option B: Mail by Wednesday, April 28, 2010

Your Submission is to include artwork, a completed registration form, a brief artist statement, and an artist biography (1 page).

Submission to be mailed to:

Ms. Beth Muia – Mood and Anxiety Program
Ambulatory Services
Regional Mental Health Care
850 Highbury Ave. N, P.O. Box 5532, Station B
London, ON N6A 4H1

If neither of these options is suitable, please call Beth Muia at (519)455-5110 ext 47323 prior to Wed. April 28th to make other arrangements.